COVER: The Drivers getting ready for the Makepeace Trophy held last club day.

This Month in Karting:

G'Day,

I must apologise the newsletter is a little light on this month. I'm a little pushed for time.

A small team of Scrutineers/Techies from our club officiated at the recent Bairnsdale Open. (Thanks Ross & Michael.) All went well. It was good to see quite a few of our members up there supporting the event. Unfortunately I didn't get a list of placings before I left. If I get one later I will add it into another newsletter.

I did have a quick glance at the Over 40s at Coffs Harbour (a very quick look) and noticed Mondsy appears to have got a third overall. Not bad for a old guy.

I have been neglecting to include the calendar so I will insert it this month. Don't forget that we will have Bairnsdale Club coming for an inter-club race this month, so brave the winter weather, dust off the kart and come down to the track to 'show the colours.'

See you at the Track- Clarkey

There are no minutes this month as the meeting was cancelled due to the lack of members being present, we only had five members and that didn't constitute a meeting. Please keep looking on the notice board, as there are new addendums coming all the time.

The books are open for entries for "C & D" grade titles, being held on the 8th /9th August, 2009. remember that we are only taking the first 24. There are supp-regs on the counter in the clubrooms, if you interested, please take one.

Bairnsdale will be coming down for this months racing, it is our Inter-club day We will go to Bairnsdale later. Will keep you all informed.

Also remember Alfi is selling merchandise in the clubrooms, but you can go and see him at his pit area about the items he has.

Anyone wishing to order their lunches before they start racing, eg. Sandwiches, Salads, Soup, if you could order them before 9.30am, that would be a great help to the girls in the canteen. Thank You.
